Speakers

Jade Buchanan

Associate, Business Law Group, McCarthy Tétrault LLP

Jade is a technology and privacy lawyer. His experience includes work in IT, data sharing, and cybersecurity. He provides considerable pro bono technology and privacy services, including advising tech-focused non-profit PeaceGeeks with Arrival Advisor, a mobile app that helps immigrants and refugees build and follow their settlement journey.

Mary Childs

Associate Counsel, Miller Thomson LLP

Mary advises all manner of purpose-driven organizations: charities, not-for-profits, cooperatives, social enterprises, and values-focused businesses. She has extensive experience with the sector, and her clients rely on her to help navigate them through the legal and regulatory landscape so they can fulfil their missions effectively.

Joshua Lenon

Lawyer in Residence, Clio

An attorney admitted to the New York Bar, Joshua has worked extensively to educate lawyers on how technology can enhance their practices, while also teaching tech companies about the unique needs of legal professionals and organizations.

Carol Liao

Director, Centre for Business Law, Allard School of Law

Carol is an Assistant Professor at Allard Law and the UBC Sauder Distinguished Scholar of the Dhillon Centre for Business Ethics. Prior to academia, she was a New York corporate lawyer and on behalf of the firm also served as a legal researcher on location at the UN International Criminal Tribunal of Rwanda, and was featured in the New York Law Journal for her pro bono asylum work.
