

CFLS Lecture Series (1998-1999)

FALL 1998

November 12, 1998

KIM PATE, Elizabeth Fry Society
BRENDA BLONDELL, BCCW
&
KARLENE FAITH, Criminology, SFU

Perspectives From Prison

November 16, 1998

NORMA JOSEPH, McGill University

Religious Rights and Human Rights: Jewish Divorce and Civil Law in Canada

(Co-sponsored with the Department of Near Eastern and Classical Studies and Hillel House)

November 19, 1998

MEGAN ELLIS, Stowe, Ellis, Vancouver

Litigating Sexual Abuse Issues

SPRING 1999

January 14, 1999

MARGOT YOUNG, Faculty of Law, University of Victoria

Women's Equality Deficit and Protection of Economic Rights under the UN Covenant on Social, Economic and Cultural Rights

January 21, 1999

SHEILA MCINTYRE, Faculty of Law, Queens University

Two Decades of Feminism and Anti-Feminism in Canadian Legal Education

February 4, 1999

Pro-Choice Action Network

Legal Abortion: Sign of a Democratic Society

February 11, 1999

HEATHER GIBBS, Immigration and Refugee Board

The International Treatment of Refugee Women: A Feminist Analysis

February 25, 1999

SUNERA THOBANI, Women's Studies, SFU

Nationalizing Citizens, Bordering Immigrant Women: Race, Migration and Citizenship in the 1990s

March 4, 1999

JUDY FUDGE, Osgoode Hall Law School, York University

Exclusion, Segregation, Discrimination, and Privatization: Law, the Canadian State and Women Public Servants, 1908-1998

June 21, 1999

ROSEMARY HUNTER, Faculty of Law, University of Melbourne

Legal Services in Family Law
