

CFLS Lecture Series (1999-2000)

FALL 1999

October 14, 1999

DORIS BUSS, Keele University, Department of Law, UK

Whose Right? Children, Sexuality and the Religious Right

October 21, 1999

LUNINGNING ALCUITAS, Philippine Women's Centre

Human Rights from the Perspective of Philippine Domestic Workers

October 28, 1999

RUTH BUSCH, Waikato University, Faculty of Law, New Zealand

What's Law Reform Got to Do With It?: Interrogating Discourses About Domestic Violence and Custody/ Access Decision-Making

November 15, 1999

SYLVIA TAMALE, Attorney and Senior Lecturer at Makerere University, Uganda

Women and Parliamentary Politics in Uganda

SPRING 2000

January 20, 2000

LEE LAKEMAN, Vancouver Rape Relief and Women's Shelter

What Does Poverty Have to Do with Violence Against Women?

February 24, 2000

ANNABEL WEBB, Justice for Girls

Barriers to Justice for Street Involved Girls

March 2, 2000

AUDREY KOBAYASHI, Professor in Women's Studies and Geography, Queens University

Achieving Employment Equity: Legislation or Persuasion?

March 9, 2000

SARAH JAIN, Assistant Professor, Cultural and Social Anthropology, Stanford University

When is Physical Injury Social Injury?

March 16, 2000

HESTER LESSARD, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Victoria

Academic Equity, Anti-Harassment Policies, and Backlash
